The Human Boy And The War

Eden Phillpotts

Published in 1916, this is the third collection of thirteen humorous short stories about English school boys in a boarding school in the fictitious village of Merivale. This book, of course, has World War I as a backdrop. Each story is told in the voice of a different boy at the school. The author wrote two other books in this series: The Human Boy (1900) and The Human Boy Again (1908). Eden Phillpotts was popular with the reading public and wrote prolifically novels, short stories, poetry, plays, and nonfiction.
